

Article 13 : Traffic accidents

You should call 110 (Police Department) to report that you have been involved in a traffic accident. If you do not speak Japanese, first inform the police officer of your nationality and your spoken language. Also call the University.

People purchase automobile insurance in case they become involved in a traffic accident. There are two types of insurances: mandatory insurance and optional insurance.