

Reasonable accommodations for students with disabilities

Basic understanding and Practical thinking

The Yamagata University Support Center for Students with Disabilities celebrated its 10th anniversary this year.

At this milestone, we will review “what reasonable accommodation is”, and then have a talk session where we will think about everyday problems.

Date

Friday, 19 September

1:00-3:00PM

Admission Starts at 12:30

Place

Yamagata University Kojirakawa Campus
General Education (Section2) 221

Program

1. Lecture

Reasonable accommodations for students with disabilities
Basic understanding and practical thinking

2. Talk Session

Let's think together
Problems about Reasonable Accommodations

Lecturer

Jun Murata

(Associate Professor)

Agency for Student Support and Disability Resources
Kyoto University

Eligible Participants

Faculties and staffs of Yamagata University and faculties and staffs of higher education institutions who are interested in supporting students with disabilities

Application Form

<https://forms.gle/bsegtgxofMs9i8tP9>

Application Deadline

Please apply until

8 September (Mon) 17PM

If you need help participating,
Please apply until

20 August(Wed) 12PM

If you have a question for Talk
Session, please apply until

27 August(Wed) 17PM

Contact us

Yamagata University Support Center for Students with Disabilities

TEL 023-628-4922 / FAX 023-628-4485

E-mail : yu-shougai-shien@jm.kj.yamagata-u.ac.jp